Kenſington, June 30.

THE following Addreſs from the Borough of Southwark, was preſented to Her Majeſty by Sir George Matthews, Kt. one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, attended by Richard Oldner, Samuel Ruſh, George Maggott and Richard Jones, Eſquires; being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Northumberland, Lord Lieutenant of the County of Surry.

To the QUEEN'S moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lord Lieutenant, High Sheriff, Deputy Lieutenants, Juſtices of the Peace, and other Inhabitants within the Lieutenancy of the Borough of Southwark.

May it pleaſe Your moſt Sacred Majeſty,

THE Glories of Your Majeſty's Arms have been ſo great, that nothing could make them more but Peace: An Obſervation which we are ſenſible would be unneceſſary, were there not ſome few of our Fellow-Subjects who ſeem to be of Opinion, that War is ſtill preferable.

But an happy and honourble Peace being now obtained by Your Majeſty's unexampled Wiſdom and Piety; we Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects beg leave to return our moſt humble Thanks.

In this Joy and Gratitude, all Your Subjects concur, except thoſe who are either deluded themſelves, or make it their Buſineſs to delude others.

But it is no wonder that thoſe Men ſhould delight in War, whoſe Crimes muſt neceſſarily be expoſed by Peace; or that the ſame Perſons ſhould repine at the Proſperity of their Country, who have raiſed vaſt Fortunes to themſelves, by well-nigh effecting its Ruin.

That the Deſigns of ſo malicious and reſtleſs a Faction are diſappointed, is owing next to GOD and Your Majeſty, to Your wiſe and faithful Counſellors.

May You always be ſerved by ſuch a Miniſtry, and very many Years enjoy the Bleſſings You have procured. For as we return Your Majeſty our moſt hearty and humble Thanks for Your particular and extraordinay Care, in ſecuring the Proteſtant Succeſſion, and for maintaining an entire Friendſhip with the moſt Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover; ſo we deſire, with the moſt ardent Wiſhes, that it may be very long before any Succeſſion actually take Place.

And as a Mark of Her Royal Favour, Her Majeſty was pleaſed to confer the Honour of Knighthood upon Richard Oldner, Eſq; High Sheriff of the County of Surry.

The following Addreſs from the County of Cambridge, was preſented to Her Majeſty by the Right Hon. the Lord North and Grey, Lord Lieutenant of the ſaid County.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lord-Lieutenant, Deputy-Lieutenants, High Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, Clergy, Gentry, and Freeholders of your County of Cambridge.

WE Your moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects beg leave, with all Zeal and Loyalty of Heart, to Congratulate Your moſt Sacred Majeſty, that You have given Peace to Europe.

The many Glorious Victories that Your Arms have won, which gave us frequent Occaſions to approach Your Royal Preſence, were burthenſome and Expenſive till the end was obtain'd for which You fought, a good and, we hope, a laſting Peace. But Heaven has at laſt put it in Your Majeſty's Power to ſhew Mercy to them who were Your Enemies, and to Bleſs Your Subjects.

We therefore hope that all Enmities will be concluded with the War, That Engliſhmen may not be leſs Friends to one another than Strangers; that the Conſtitution will be unattempted now there's no more War abroad.

We rely entirely on Your Majeſty as to the Proteſtant Succeſſion, for it ſeems impoſſible to us, that ſo pious a Princeſs can ever give Subjects over into Popiſh Hands: But give us, Madam, leave to rejoice, that notwithſtanding ill Endeavours, there is a perfect Friendſhip with the Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover. Late, very late, may that Succeſſion take place; may Your Years be proportionable to the Glories of Your Reign; and may Heaven, for the good of this World, as long as poſſible, defer Your Beatitude in the next.

The following Addreſs from the Corporation of Boſton, in the County of Lincoln, was preſented to Her Majeſty by Richard Wynne, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament; being introduced by the Lord High Treaſurer.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Deputy-Recorder, Aldermen, Common-Council, Clergy, Gentry, Burgeſſes and other the Inhabitants of Your ancient Borough of Boſton, in the County of Lincoln.

May it pleaſe Your moſt Sacred Majeſty,

WHILST diſtreſſed Nations abroad, made happy by Your triumphing Arms and Councils, are bleſſing Your Majeſty as their glorious Deliverer (under GOD) from War, Oppreſſion and Miſery: Whilſt at home every Corner of Your wide Dominions are, in the moſt dutiful manner, proclaiming aloud their mighty Joy, to ſee themſelves at length releaſed from the Toils and Burthen of a War,

War, which Avarice and Ambition would have made Perpetual: Whilſt we behold You there as the great Arbiter of Europe, giving her Peace, ſettling the Ballance of Power, and adjuſting the Differences of contending Princes: Whilſt here we ſee Faction fly before You, Religion once more lift up her Head under Your Majeſty's auſpicious Influences, againſt the Inſults of Blaſphemy, Fanaticiſm and Infidelity; and all the Bleſſings we enjoy, ſecured by Your Royal Care and Goodneſs to late Poſterity, under the future Protection of the moſt Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover.

With ſuch a Proſpect, and ſuch loyal Examples before us, it were impoſſible to continue ſilent.

We preſume therefore, moſt Gracious Sovereign, amidſt the reſt of Your happy and loyal Subjects, to croud into Your Sacred Preſence with a Joy greater than Words can expreſs, and with the humbleſt Tender of our Duty and Loyalty, and moſt grateful ſincere Affection to Your Royal Perſon and Government.

We at the ſame time declare our utter Averſion to the Meaſures and Principles of thoſe, who have endeavoured in vain, to obſtruct the juſt and glorious Peace which Your Majeſty has given to Europe, and that we would not have put aſunder, what GOD and Your Majeſty joined together, by diſſolving the happy Union of Your Kingdom of Great Britain, which Your Majeſty ſo juſtly reckons among the Glories and great Atchievements of Your Reign.

The following Addreſs from the Town of Maidſtone, was preſented to Her Majeſty by Sir Thomas Colepepyr and Sir Robert Marſham, Barts. their Repreſentatives in Parliament; being introduced by the Right Hon. the Lord Rockingham, Lord Lieutenant of the County of Kent.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Jurats and Commonalty, and other Gentlemen and Freemen of Your Majeſty's Corporation and Town of Maidſtone, in Kent.

PERMIT us, Dread Sovereign, from Hearts full of dutiful Affection, to pour forth our joyful Congratulations upon the happy Completion of the Peace: A Peace ſo exceedingly wanted, ſo paſſionately deſired, and yet (to endear it ſtill more to us) ſo unaccountably delay'd and obſtructed by thoſe (and only thoſe) who envy Your Majeſty's Greatneſs, and the Proſperity of Your People.

But Your Majeſty is Mighty to Conquer in Council, as well as in Battle: And it was a noble Reſolution, alike worthy Your Princely Piety and Policy, that could Calm the contending Nations, and diſpoſe them to perfect Amity, amidſt all the Clamours of the Factious, and the Machinations of the Crafty, and put a final Stop to that violent effuſion of Blood, and that prodigious waſte of Treaſure, under which Your faithful Britains had been long languiſhing although they were always too Stout-hearted to Complain, always too Loyal to utter the leaſt Murmur.

And that the Bleſſing of this auſpicious Reign, will be tranſmitted ſafe to our Poſterity, we have all the Security that humane Affairs will admit, ſince Your Majeſty hath taken ſuch provident Care to eſtabliſh the Succeſſion to Your Crown in the Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover, and to guard it by all poſſible Precautions againſt any Deſigns or Attempts that might defeat it; of which Your Majeſty hath been pleaſed to give the moſt condeſcending Proof, though to us the Aſſurance of Your Royal Word, is the ſureſt and moſt ſacred Pledge of all others.

Grant us leave, Madam, however in our Hopes, to remove that Point of Time, to the greateſt diſtance from our ſelves, and to pray with all the Ardour of our Souls, That Your Majeſty may live many happy, glorious Years, to arbitrate the Differences of other Princes, and to Portion out their ſeveral Allotments Your Self, ſtill maintaining an abſolute and undivided Empire, in the Hearts of a loving and obedient People.

The following Addreſs from the Town and Port of New-Romney, was preſented to Her Majeſty by the Hon. Edward Watſon, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament; introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Lord Rockingham, Lord Lieutenant of the County of Kent.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Jurats, and Commonalty of the Town and Port of New-Romney (one of Your Majeſty's Cinque-Ports) in the County of Kent.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE have often waited on Your Majeſty with our Congratulations on the many and glorious Victories gained by Your Majeſty's Arms during the late War, and do now with Hearts full of Thankfulneſs join with the reſt of Your Majeſty's loyal Subjects, to Congratulate the Succeſs Your Endeavours have had in obtaining an honourable Peace.

Your Majeſty's affectionate Care for the future Safety of Your People in eſtabliſhing the Proteſtant Succeſſion, we moſt thankfully acknowledge, and are ſenſible that a perfect Friendſhip between Your Majeſty and the Houſe of Hanover, will very much contribute towards our Happineſs.

That Your Majeſty may enjoy many happy and peaceful Days, is the Prayer of Your Majeſty's truly Faithful and Loyal Subjects.

The following Addreſs from the Iſland of Jerſey, was preſented to Her Majeſty by his Excellency General Lumley, Governor of that Iſland.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the States of Your Majeſty's Iſland of Jerſey.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE who have often had the Honour to Congratulate Your Majeſty upon the great and glorious Succeſſes of Your Arms, during the War, do now with joyful Hearts return Your Majeſty our moſt humble Thanks, for procuring to Your People an honourable and advantageous Peace, and eſtabliſhing the future Happineſs of Your Kingdoms, by ſecuring our Religion and the Proteſtant Succeſſion as by Law Eſtabliſhed.

That the Almighty GOD, who has ſo highly bleſt Your Majeſty with Wiſdom and Honour, and who has ſo abundantly bleſt us, under the Government of ſo good and pious a QUEEN, may further bleſs us and the reſt of Your Subjects with a long continuance of Your Majeſty's happy Reign over a dutiful and loyal People, is the fervent Prayer of us Your Majeſty's moſt loyal and moſt obedient Subjects.

The

The following Addreſs from the Borough of Stratford upon Avon in the County of Warwick, was Preſented to Her Majeſty by Hugh Clopton, Eſq; being Introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Dorſet and Middleſex, High Steward of the ſaid Corporation.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Lord High Steward, Recorder, Steward, Aldermen, and Capital Burgeſſes of Your Majeſty's ancient Borough of Stratford upon Avon, in the County of Warwick.

PERMIT us, Dread Sovereign, to offer our humble Congratulations and Thanks on this happy Occaſion at Your Majeſty's Throne, from whence not only theſe fortunate Iſlands, but the reſt of Europe, derive the ineſtimable Bleſſing of Peace.

When we look back, we are ſtruck indeed with Wonder, at the many Victories and Triumphs which have attended Your Majeſty's Arms: But we muſt own the hopes of a firm and laſting Peace, have fill'd our Minds with a much more agreeable and delightful Proſpect; a Proſpect of a long Series of Years to come, in which the Arts of Peace ſhall flouriſh, and all Your Majeſty's Graces and Virtues ſhed their united Influences on the Heads of Your own Subjects.

And whenever the Time ſhall come (which O! may it be far remov'd) wherein Your Majeſty, the Source of theſe Bleſſings, ſhall be taken away from us our Comfort then will be (for Your Majeſty's Wiſdom and Goodneſs has taken care to alleviate the Severity even of this fatal Stroke) that a Branch of Your Royal Stem, tranſplanted from the Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover, ſhall fill Your Throne and Propagate the ſame Bleſſings to our late Poſterity.

May that good Providence, which has hitherto delighted to diſtinguiſh Your Majeſty from all the Princes on Earth, by many peculiar Inſtances of Favour; ſo incline the Hearts of all Your Subjects, that for the remainder of Your Days You may enjoy the Fruits of Peace, by Reigning over a truly Loyal, Peaceable and Grateful People.

The following Addreſſes from the Towns of Invernes, Nairne, and Fortroſe, in North-Britain, being tranſmitted by George Mackenzie, Eſq; their Repreſentative in Parliament, were preſented to Her Majeſty by Sir Hugh Paterſon, Bart. being Introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Mar.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Magiſtrates and Town Council of the Burgh of Invernes, for themſelves and in Name of the Community thereof.

WE Your Majeſty's moſt Loyal Subjects do from the deepeſt Senſe of our Duty and Allegiance, heartily Congratulate the Glorious Peace procured to all Your Dominions and Allies, on which the Happineſs of Europe did ſo much depend; and as this Bleſſing muſt hand down Your Majeſty's moſt unparallel'd Prudence to Poſterity, and gain from Your Allies the juſt Character of the greateſt Monarch in Europe, ſo it cannot but confirm Your Majeſty in the Choice of Your Faithful and Able Miniſtry, who by Your wiſe Directions have Negotiated the Quiet and abſolute Satisfaction of all Your Majeſty's true Subjects, in ſpite of all the Endeavours of a reſtleſs and never to be ſatisfied Faction at home.

We, without Reſerve, depend on Your Majeſty's Wiſdom, in ſecuring our Religion and the Succeſſion to the Hereditary Crown of Great Britain, in the Family of Your Royal Progenitors, the moſt ancient Line of Succeſſion in the World; being as much convinced that our Guarantee is entirely in Your Hands, as Your Serene Majeſty does place Yours in Your People.

And we beg Leave, by this Occaſion, to return Your Sacred Majeſty our moſt humble and dutiful Thanks for the Security and Protection given the laſt Seſſion of this Your Faithful and Loyal Parliament to us in the Exerciſe of our religious Worſhip, agreeable to the Orthodox and Primitive Inſtitution of the Church of England; and ſincerely Pray, That Your Majeſty and Poſterity may ever have a People and Parliament truly inſtructed in the Principles of this Divine Church, the great Security of Your Royal Perſon, and the Conſtitution of Great Britain, on both which only our Quiet, Peace and Proſperity can firmly ſtand.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The moſt humble Addreſs of the Magiſtrates, Town Council, and reſt of the Inhabitants of the Loyal Burgh of Nairne, in North-Britain.

Moſt Gracious and Dread Sovereign!

AMONG the reſt of Your Majeſty's Faithful Subjects, who have or may Addreſs Your Majeſty on this Occaſion, we, Your Majeſty's Loyal and Dutiful Subjects, beg Leave to expreſs the entire Satisfaction of our Minds, for Your Majeſty's happy Concluſion of the Peace; and with thankful Hearts acknowledge Your Majeſty's great Wiſdom, Courage, and indefatigable Pains, in ſurmounting the great Difficulties that have ſo long obſtructed Your Majeſty's pious Deſigns of exchanging a long and expenſive War, with ſo honourable and happy a Peace.

We know not with what Modeſty we can preſume to Addreſs Your Majeſty, in the matter of the Succeſſion, leſt we ſhould ſeem to call in queſtion Your Majeſty's unqueſtionable Prudence, or the faithfulneſs of Your Majeſty's Council: And therefore we ſincerely declare, That our outmoſt Wiſhes reach no further than that our Poſterity may reap the Effects of Your Majeſty's wiſe Choice, while we think our ſelves happy under Your Majeſty's Adminiſtration all our Days.

Amidſt the Calamities of this oppreſſed Church, we have had (almoſt) the ſingular Happineſs of having our Epiſcopal Paſtor continued with us; yet Chriſtian Sympathy with our ſuffering Neighbours, cannot but draw from us (in Conjuction with others Your Majeſty's moſt faithful Subjects) our moſt hearty Thanks for the ſeaſonable Relief given them by a Toleration, in granting to them the free Exerciſe of their Religious Worſhip, conform to the Orthodox and Primitive Inſtitution; and that (as much as the preſent State will allow) Your Majeſty has ſecured them from future Incroachments, by reſtoring our Patrons to their juſt and ancient Rights.

May it therefore pleaſe GOD to preſerve Your Majeſty, that You may live long and happily, to reap the Fruits of Your own Labours, and continue to be a Support and Protection to Your Subjects, a Defender of the true Church, the Ornament of this, and Your Memory the Admiration of future Ages; which is the fervent Prayer and ſincere Wiſhes of, May it pleaſe Your Majeſty, Your Majeſty's moſt Loyal, Dutiful and Faithful Subjects.

To

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Magiſtrates, Common Council, and whole Incorporation of the Borough of Fortroſe, in the County of Roſs, in North Britain.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

IT's with the greateſt Joy, we Congratulate Your Majeſty on the glorious Succeſs of the Peace reſtor'd to all Your Dominions, notwithſtanding the artful Obſtructions contrived againſt it, by ſuch who for gaining their belliſh Deſigns would prefer War.

And as we cannot but admire Your Majeſty's unparallel'd Prudence, ſo we muſt in Juſtice applaud the Fidelity and indefatigable Pains of Your Majeſty's Miniſtry, who by Your wiſe direction, have negotiated the Happineſs of their Country, and Fellow Subjects.

We doubt not but a few Years may raze out of the Memory of all honeſt Men, the Hardſhips ſo long ſuffer'd, by a bloody and expenſive War: And we believe that the ineſtimable Bleſſing diſpens'd to us, by the means of ſo pious a Sovereign, will by Her alſo ſecure to us and our Poſterity the Proteſtant Religion, in Order and Decency, founded on Righteouſneſs and Truth, which is the Fence of our Conſtitution, and in Conſequence the true Fountain of Plenty, the certain Iſſue of Trade.

And that the Author of Peace and Truth may preſerve Your moſt Serene Majeſty, for the accompliſhment of Your Own and Your true Subjects Happineſs, and for his Honour and Glory, is the earneſt Prayer of, may it pleaſe Your moſt Sacred Majeſty, Your Majeſty's moſt loyal and moſt obedient Subjects.

Which Addreſſes Her Majeſty received very graciouſly.

Madrid, June 19. N. S. On the 12th Monſieur Orry ſet out in great haſte towards Arragon, with the Prince de Chalais, the Marquis de Creveceur, and the Count de Soupat, but the Occaſion of this Journey is not yet known. Before he went away, he had eſtabliſh'd a Company of the moſt conſiderable Merchants for the Management of the Rents called General. They have hitherto been farmed by private Perſons, who immediately complained to Count Bergeick of the Injuſtice of diſpoſſeſſing them before they have received Satisfaction for the Money they have already advanced for the King's uſe; upon which the Count hath put a ſtop to this Project till Monſieur Orry's return. Some Days ago a Courier arrived from the Duke d'Oſſuna with Advice, that the Term allow'd for the Emperor to agree to the Plan of Peace ſtipulated for him being expired, his Majeſty's Plenipotentiaries were gone from Utrecht. The Marquis de Gibelline is expected here very ſoon from Palermo, being deputed by the Sicilians with a Commiſſion, as is ſaid, to deſire his Majeſty, that if he is reſolved to abandon them, they may have liberty to chuſe a King for themſelves. We have received Advice from Catalonia, that General Staremberg had ſignified to Sennor Grimaldo, that he had named a German Commiſſary, who would be at Cervera on the 13th of this Month, to treat with him about the Evacuation of that Province.

Hamburg, July 4. N. S. The King of Pruſſia is to take the Dutchy of Holſtein into Sequeſtration, in purſuance of the Treaty concluded between his Miniſters and thoſe of Sweden and Gottorp; and it is agreed, that two Battalions of his Majeſty's Troops ſhall be added to the Swediſh Garriſon at Wiſmar, and two more to that at Stetin: But we are informed, that General Meyerfeldt hath declared that he will not let the Pruſſians enter into the latter of theſe Places, and that he will defend it againſt againſt any Foreign Power whatever. Count Welling is very much concerned at this Declaration, leſt it ſhould alter the Meaſures his Pruſſian Majeſty had reſolved to take for the Preſervation of Holſtein and Pomerania, when he ſees how ill Matters are concerted between the Swediſh Generals. The Daniſh Miniſter reſiding here hath been with Prince Menzikoff, by order of the King his Maſter, to acquaint him that his Majeſty will never agree to the Sequeſtration projected by the Court of Berlin, and that he hopes the Czar will not give his conſent to it, deſiring him to acquaint the King of Pruſſia with this Reſolution. It is ſaid the Prince hath thereupon aſſured Monſieur Haguedorn, that he will make ſuch Propoſals to his Pruſſian Majeſty, as will engage him to enter into the Intereſts of the Allies, or at leaſt to obſerve an exact Neutrality. On the 15th Inſtant King Auguſtus received Letters from the Ambaſſador of the Republick at Adrianople, dated the 20th of May, and containing in Subſtance, that the Grand Vizir had prevailed on the Port to declare War againſt the Czar with the uſual Solemnities: But the Day after this was done the Grand Signior diſcovered that the Vizir had formed a Party at Conſtantinople to dethrone him, and ſet up Ibrahim his Nephew in his ſtead. Whereupon he cauſed him to be Arreſted, and then ordered him to be Strangled, and his Body thrown into the River. After this Execution the Directions that had been already given to the Janiſſaries were revok'd, and it was reſolved in a Divan to obſerve the Treaty of Carlowitz with Poland, to confirm the Peace made at Pruth with the Muſcovites, to ſend the King of Sweden home through Poland or by Sea, in purſuance of the Treaty concluded with the Ambaſſador of the Republick. King Auguſtus hath ſince received Advice, that his Swediſh Majeſty perſiſts in refuſing the Propoſals that have been made to him for returning into his own Dominions, and for that reaſon he is detained in a Village near Adrianople. The Turks will advance him no more Money, and he has been obliged to borrow Twenty thouſand Ducats of the Jews at Forty per Cent. Iſuf Baſſa, who concluded the Treaty of Peace at Pruth, was recalled from his Baniſhment, and conſtituted Grand Vizir.

Utrecht, July 7. N. S. On the 5th Inſtant the Deputies of Flanders, together with the Miniſters of the States, were in Conference with the Lord Privy Seal; and the proviſional Settlement of Trade in the Netherlands, as agreed to between Her Majeſty's Miniſters and thoſe of the States, was communicated to them, with which they ſeemed to be very well ſatisfied. This Day his Lordſhip was in Conference with the Plenipotentiaries of Spain, in order to prepare Matters for the ſpeedy Signing the Treaty of Peace between Her Majeſty and the Catholick King.

Hague, July 8. N. S. On the 5th the ſeveral Miniſters of the Empire met at Baron Heem's Houſe, to deliberate upon the preſent Situation of Affairs in Germany. Yeſterday the Earl of Strafford, together with Prince Curakim, Ambaſſador from the Czar, and the Miniſters of Denmark and Poland, had a Conference with the Deputies of the States-General on the Subject of the War in the North. Monſieur Palmquiſt, Envoy of Sweden, was afterwards with the Deputies on the ſame Subject. Count Tarouca, who came hither to ſolicit for the Arrears due to the King of Portugal his Maſter, is returned to Utrecht. Two Days ago Mr. Wich, Her Majeſty's Envoy in the Lower Saxony, went to Rotterdam, in order to embark for Great Britain.

London, July 3. On the 1ſt Inſtant, the Duke d'Aumont, Ambaſſador Extraordinary from the moſt Chriſtian King, made his publick Entry. He was received at Greenwich by the Earl of Scarſdale, and Sir Clement Cotterell, Maſter of the Ceremonies, accompanied by ſix Genlemen of the Privy Chamber. From thence he was brought by Water, together with all his Train, in Her Majeſty's Barges to the Tower. At his Landing he was met and complimented by the Earl of Northampton, Conſtable of the Tower, and the Guard being drawn out upon the Wharf, ſaluted his Excellency as he paſſed by. The Royal Standard was diſplay'd upon this occaſion, and the Guns were fir'd as he went away. From thence he proceeded to Somerſet-houſe, in the following manner. The Earl of Scarſdale's Coach, thirty of the Ambaſſador's Footmen walking two by two: Four Swiſſes, Twelve Pages, two Gentlemen of the Horſe, two Governors of the Pages, all mounted on Horſeback. Then came the Queen's Coach of State, in which were the Ambaſſador, the Earl of Scarſdale, the Maſter of the Ceremonies, and the Secretary of the Embaſſy. This was follow'd by another of the Queen's Coaches, in which were the ſix Gentlemen of the Privy Chamber. Afterwards came five of his Excellency's Coaches drawn by eight Horſes each, with four others drawn by ſix, which were follow'd by a numerous Train of Coaches of the Nobility and Gentry, with ſix Horſes each. When they arrived at Somerſet-houſe, which was the Place appointed by Her Majeſty for his Entertainment, the Earl of Scarſdale put him into Poſſeſſion of the Houſe, and took his leave; after which, the Lord Windſor came and made him a Compliment in Her Majeſty's Name.

On Wedneſday Night the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Kingſton, only Son of the Marquis of Dorcheſter, died of the Small-Pox.

Her Majeſty hath been pleaſed to confer the Dignity of a Baronet of this Kingdom upon Thomas Croſſe, of the City of Weſtminſter, Eſq;
